

PRESS RELEASE

Sunrise Systems to implement Records Information Management System for Cumberland County (NJ)

Metuchen, NJ (March, 2010) – Sunrise Systems, Inc. a leading edge IT Services and Solutions provider will be working with Cumberland County (NJ) for the implementation of RecordsMine, a Records Information Management System.

As part of the implementation, Sunrise will assist Cumberland County in the adoption of Records Management policies and procedures.

“We look forward to working with Cumberland County on this significant project to help them increase staff productivity and provide valuable services to the internal users and constituents” said Noorali Sonawalla, president of Sunrise Systems, Inc.

About Sunrise Systems, Inc.

Founded in 1990 in Metuchen, N.J., Sunrise Systems is a full-service information technology firm providing Systems Integration, Custom Software Development, Staff Augmentation and Professional Services to a number of Fortune 500 companies and State and Local Government Agencies.

Sunrise has developed a number of solution offerings for Government Agencies including eRecording Portal, Public Record Search System, Online Appeal Filing System, Artemis and Records Information Management System (RecordsMine) and that are in use across multiple government agencies.